

SIGURD ANDERSON
GOVERNOR

PIERRE

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the second Sunday in May of each year is traditionally recognized as Mother's Day; and

WHEREAS, Mother's Day is set aside so that we might especially commemorate and pay tribute to the one person all mankind remembers with everlasting and steadfast reverence; and

WHEREAS, we should most certainly pay tribute to Mother for the guidance, loving care and devotion that she has given us and the sacrifices she has so willingly made; and

WHEREAS, Mother's Day stands as one of our most important national observances;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 10, 1953, as

and do hereby urge all the people of South Dakota to observe the day and give due recognition and expression of love and devotion to their mother or her memory.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 2nd day of May, 1953.
